MEDIA ADVISORY

November 6, 2014

For Immediate Release

Reading Public Library Grand Opening

The Reading Public Library invites you to an opening celebration on Saturday November 8 at 12 noon at 80 General Way, Reading,

We think you'll be pleasantly surprised at all you'll find when you visit the "new" temporary library: just-released books & movies for all ages, free wireless, children's & reference librarians to help with questions and recommendations, and a brightly-lit, cheerful spot to catch up with your neighbors or browse through the latest newspapers and magazines.

The building at 64 Middlesex Avenue, Reading, is now closed for a major renovation that will begin in a few months, and that is expected to take about a year and a half to complete.

After our noontime opening on Saturday, the library will be open its usual schedule including Sundays:

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday 9 – 9

Thursday 1-9

Friday, Saturday 9-5

Sunday 2-5 (October – May)
